Commentary: Larry Lewis

As a courtesy to Idaho I have included the upcoming Idaho Sanctioned Tournaments. I received a request from the Moscow, Idaho club to let our members in the vicinity of Pullman, Wa know so that they may want to attend an Idaho Tourney.

Just a reminder the deadlines for State Singles ($25) is 8/23/18 and State Doubles ($15) is 9/7/18. There are only 3 tournaments left to qualify for the State Tournament.

World Tournament Wrap-up

Congratulations to all our Washington pitchers that represented us at the World Tournament. With only 8 pitchers able to make the trip back to South Carolina, we had 3 pitchers advance into championship classes and several others finish in the money in their classes.

Cindy Clausen finished 14th in Women's class C

Bonnie Lewis finished 6th in Women's class F

Phil Quist finished 4th in Women's class G

Trudy Oye finished 4th in Women's class H

Matt Fuller finished 14th in Men's class A then went on to finish 13th in the Championship

Don Davis finished 11th in the Men's class A then went on to finish 15th in the Championship

Russ Phillips finished 10th in Elders class A then went on to finish 9th in the Elders Championship

Jim Quist finished 11th in the Elders class I-2

It is over, another world tournament in the books. I want to say thank you to all of our Washington state pitchers for doing such a great job of representing us from Washington : Trudy Oye, Phyl Quist, Jim Quist, Cindy Clausen, Bonnie Lewis, Russ Phillips and Matt Fuller. "Congratulations" to Trudy, and Phyl for placing in their classes. Jim, Russ, Matt, Cindy and myself made lifelong friends. To the pitchers that have not had the pleasure of going to a world horseshoe tournament, GO! It is the best time you can have pitching. We all want to do well, but once the pitching is done and the visiting starts, that is when the fun really begins.

I want to share a little blurb from my experience at the world tournament. As we all know there are all kinds of stories about Walter Ray Williams Jr in horseshoes. But I will say, that this year that was not the case for me. I got to play him twice and what an interesting experience. With all he has done and of course the records he holds are nothing to sneeze at... and let's not forget to mention that he is a world class bowler. I started the day playing him. While we were warming up, I got to ask him about playing in the Northwest all those years ago...and to his credit he had great things to say about our area and people that played him from here. What a great feeling to hear someone with that kind of success remember the past and names, from when they came to play horseshoes here in Washington and Oregon. If that doesn't make you proud to be a Washington state pitcher, I'm not sure what would.
