Commentary: Larry Lewis

Hello to all the pitchers out there. I hope everyone is having a good year so far. We have two Winetrout down with 4 to go. Lets have a great turn out for the rest of them.

Changes to note:

Burlington and Kitsap will be swapping their weekends for hosting. This means Burlington will host Winetrout #4 and Kitsap will be hosting Winetrout #5.

Received word from Rhonda that the Executive board meeting will be at Winetrout #4 this year.

I saw these pictures posted on the NHPA Facebook page. They were uploaded by Gary Roberts with the following question.

“Do any of you from the Northwest have any knowledge of Roy "Stiffy" Smith? This picture is from 1934.”

I imagine that if anyone has any information to share Gary would appreciate it.

The Prez*

Good day Fellow horseshoe pitchers,
We are 2 Winetrouts in and so far the numbers have been pretty good. I would like to welcome Fritz Pfaff and Dean Speers to the group, so glad to have your guys. Also a big thank you to the Seattle club for picking up the series. Jon Martin and Fritz Pfaff are there when we get to the courts and they are still there when we leave. Thank you, thank you,

In Loving Memory of Tricky

Hello, Larry,
I had a call from Gene Kuiken in Indio, Calif. yesterday. He told me that Paul Quam told him that Tricky passed away in September. He didn't know any details, but said Paul had been keeping in touch with him. I don't have a current phone number for Paul, but I'm sure Rhonda would have it.

Our numbers are shrinking!

In Loving Memory of Ruth Welsch

Received a letter from Henry Knauff & Katie Brownlee that another long time member of the Spokane club passed away. Ruth passed away on November 15, 2017. She was a WSHPA Hall of Fame member. Her and Ed were instrumental in having the courts installed in Spokane.

In Loving Memory of John Reedy

From Bret Halfman,

It is with Great sadness, My Grandfather John Reedy passed away at 93 years old Jan 30th 2018. He was a hell of a horseshoe pitcher. It was an honor to play against him. RIP John Reedy. Please pass this information on to the players in Port Orchard; Mr. Sperber and Mr. Chriss. I met them briefly at the fairgrounds throwing shoes. I am passing this along to the association also.

Prayers needed for Families

Monty McLaughlin for Lung Surgery and the 6—8 weeks of rehab recovery, which includes no horseshoe pitching until approx April. We also need to keep them in our prayers due to the loss of their son.

Stan Speers and family for loss of son

thank you !!

I hear we need to put Cindy on every plane out of Sea Tac. She is meeting people and signing them up for horseshoes in her travels. We all need to learn from her. She kind of reminds me of Jon Turnbull, who can talk horseshoes to anybody. But there is something different about her. What could that be?????????

As we talked during the morning "welcome", Monty is still recovering from his lung surgery. Hoping for good news as his diagnosis unfolds. As a lot of people asked about Charlie Tapper last Winetrout, we found out that he had the flu and spent a little time in the hospital. He is recovering now at home and we hope to see him soon. I called Brandon but no answer. I think I am seeing a pattern... Phyllis calls and he talks to her. I think Jon and I may have the same issue!

Sorry we didn't see anyone from the east side at the last Winetrout, but we are so glad you guys are safe. We will see you at Winetrout 4. Remember Cindy will be running things why I go to the Valley Of the Sun tournament in Arizona. I would say be nice to her, but I am sure she can handle anything that comes her way. With that I will sign off and see you when I get back. Now get out and practice!!!!!!!!!!!! Don
