Commentary: Larry Lewis

Hello to all the pitchers out there. I hope everyone is having a good year so far. With two Winetrouts remaining. Who will take the top honors this year?

If anyone has any ideas for the Shoesnews please let me know. This issue also has a complete listing of the tournaments for this year.

Also, do not forget to register for the World tournament if you plan on going to South Carolina this year. You can print off the registration or register online @ NHPA Website. I will try to include a copy of it in the April Shoesnews.

Hi all, Here we are, heading down the road to Winetrout 4. Man this goes by fast ! Again we are hearing nothing but good things about Seattle and the team : Jon, Fritz and Jeff.

Sorry to say that I let us down when I went to Mesa. I had it right in my hands and let it slip away. But I had a great time. They have great courts and the people that run the Valley of the Sun tournament do a great job. It is kind of hard to pitch and not think how nice the temps are in Arizona when here it is in the 30's and there it is in the 80's. But the bottom line is, their people still don't hold a candle to my

WSHPA News

Shoes News thanks those who contribute articles, pictures, emails, and other items. Your comments, criticism, and input is always welcome. This page is for you to share your thoughts, and concerns of our horseshoe pitching family. . Lets hear from you.

Our horseshoe family is really very unique. And the reason for that is because we have a few folks we call ‘characters’. That is the diversity of our organization that makes us so special.

We recently lost one of our special characters. We called him Tricky – a fictitious name? We never knew. When he had to give either a first or last name so his records could be entered into NatStats, he said his first name was I am. And so that became his official name – I am Tricky.

I remember when Tricky first started pitching. He came to us with quite a negative attitude – I think expecting to be rejected. But that’s not who we are. We accepted him into our ranks and he kept coming back and soon started to mellow. In fact he even had a bit of a sense of humor at times. He had found a family to be a part of. Oh yeah, he still gave grief to folks once in awhile. But that was Tricky.

I adhere to the saying ‘Never judge a book by its cover’ and that’s how I saw Tricky. I just wish I could have read more pages in that closed book.

Tricky has gone through treatment for cancer that last couple of years and in September 2017 he lost that battle. I will miss him.

Our horseshoe family has been blessed with lots of ‘characters’ and I guess each one of us in our own way comes under that category. That’s what makes our horseshoe family so special. And when we become someone’s only family that someone stands out. That was Tricky.

friends and fellow pitchers here in my home state. We have the executive board meeting at Winetrout 4 and I think we have some things to bring up and spend some time on. So if you are on the board please show up on time so we can cover this stuff. Also thank you to Cindy for filling in for me while I was globe-trotting. I heard that most of you like her better...might be looking at the next President of Washington!!!!!! But we all knew she would do a great job filling in for me and she didn't disappoint. We heard from Charlie and we are glad he is getting around better and look forward to seeing him very soon. Still nothing from Brandon and I am sure we all understand. We continue to think of him and wish him well. We hope Monty is healing and feeling better each day. That seems to be it for now. See you on the courts. Don
