Reminder. For those planning on attending the World Tournament in Saint George, Utah the deadline is fast approaching. You can still visit the NHPA site home page they have links up for the World Tournament. You can print out the registration form, register online via credit card or Pay Pal, tournament payout schedule, and see the list of those that have already registered.

Just a reminder that for those that want to experience a tournament in Canada the International/ Highway man open is just around the corner May 20th and 21st in Burnaby, B.C.

Since the Month of May has both Mother's Day and Memorial Day I figured that I would include some history on the beginning of those two days.

History of Mother's Day

Since Mother's Day is May 14th this year I thought I would find an article about the History of this special day. Below is an article I found from National Geographic. This is just the first part of the article.

Mother's Day Turns 100: Its Surprisingly Dark History

By Brian Handwerk, for National Geographic
PUBLISHED May 9, 2014

The modern holiday of Mother's Day was first celebrated in 1908, when Anna Jarvis held a memorial for her mother at St Andrew's Methodist Church in Grafton, West Virginia. ... In 1914, Woodrow Wilson signed a proclamation designating Mother's Day, held on the second Sunday in May, as a national holiday to honor mothers.

As Mother's Day turns 100 this year, it's known mostly as a time for brunches, gifts, cards, and general outpourings of love and appreciation.

But the holiday has more somber roots: It was founded for mourning women to remember fallen soldiers and work for peace. And when the holiday went commercial, its greatest champion, Anna Jarvis, gave everything to fight it, dying penniless and broken in a sanitarium.

It all started in the 1850s, when West Virginia women's organizer Ann Reeves Jarvis—Anna's mother—held Mother's Day work clubs to improve sanitary conditions and try to lower infant mortality by fighting disease and curbing milk contamination, according to historian Katharine Antolini of West Virginia Wesleyan College. The groups also tended wounded soldiers from both sides during the U.S. Civil War from 1861 to 1865.

In the postwar years Jarvis and other women organized Mother's Friendship Day picnics and other events as pacifist strategies to unite former foes. Julia Ward Howe, for one—best known as the composer of "The

Crossing the Northern Boarder

On Saturday, April 22, me and my dad made the drive up to Canada for the Cloverdale Spring Ringers Only tournament which was held on Sunday, April 23. This was only the third time that they have held this tournament. The day started off very dark, and dreary, and raining. But by the time we had to start pitching the rain had stopped, then the sun came out.

I like their set up for the tournaments, they start at 10 am, then they play four games then they break for lunch and finish the last game or two after lunch.

Since I have been away at college, and in Germany for the last three months I haven't been able to get all my tournaments needed to pitch at World. The reason that me and my dad went up to the tournament up in Canada, is I needed two more tournaments to be eligible to pitch at the world horseshoe tournament. Now I only need one more tournament.

Although I didn't win in my class, I still got to pitch with the women who signed up to pitch in the tournament. There was only five women, and we had a good time while we were pitching.

For the day I got a total of 12 ringers which is pretty good for me since I haven't had time to practice and it has been a while since I have last pitched horseshoes.

"Battle Hymn of the Republic"—issued a widely read "Mother's Day Proclamation" in 1870, calling for women to take an active political role in promoting peace.

Around the same time, Jarvis had initiated a Mother's Friendship Day for Union and Confederate loyalists across her state. But it was her daughter Anna who was most responsible for what we call Mother's Day—and who would spend most of her later life fighting what it had become.

My dad had to do a playoff game for first in his class, the last shoe his opponent Sante Michielin, from British Columbia, Canada got a double and dad missed the stake. My dad ended up getting second place in his class and he got the American money that was our entry fee back.

Me and my dad plan to go to more tournaments up in Canada but we don't know which tournaments those would be, but we would want to see more people from Washington to join us up in Canada.

Memorial Day, originally called Decoration Day, is a day of remembrance for those who have died in service of the United States of America. During this day as we enjoy BBQs with friends and family or attend events around our areas wherever we may be that weekend. Lets all take a moment of silence for those that have paid the ultimate price for our freedom. The “National Moment of Remembrance” resolution was passed on Dec 2000 which asks that at 3 p.m. local time, for all Americans “To voluntarily and informally observe in their own way a Moment of remembrance and respect, pausing from whatever they are doing for a moment of silence or listening to ‘Taps.’”

And do not forget:

That ALL gave some but Some gave ALL
