Commentary: Larry Lewis

It is with a heavy heart as I am putting this together that it will be the issue of this publication for the immediate future. Hopefully we can grow our membership to what it used to be and this will be reinstated sometime in the future. I have enjoyed my time as your editor even though I have had issues at times with the aging equipment, etc. I have tried to make sure that this issue has everything in it to wrap up the year.

Have a safe and Happy upcoming Holiday Season (Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Years Eve) and we will see you all next year on the courts.

Message from The Prez

Good day fellow horseshoe pitchers.

This is the last official newsletter, so I thought I would empower everyone to be a Shoes News Reporter. I am asking for those of you on face book to post any horseshoe related news. These posts could include horseshoe events coming up, thoughts about when and where to have tournaments, interesting things that happened at a tournament, or any pictures taken at tournament. Anything news worthy about horseshoes can be shared for people to see and react to. We can start moving people toward the computer age and help us with the cost of doing business inside our organization. This brings down membership dues and lets everyone become a voice for our organization.

Also I haven't had a chance to talk about the PNW tournament

WSHPA News

Shoes News thanks those who contribute articles, pictures, emails, and other items. Your comments, criticism, and input is always welcome. This page is for you to share your thoughts, and concerns of our horseshoe pitching family. . Lets hear from you.

TO MY HORSESHOE FAMILY

I am saddened that this is the last Shoes News edition. I would like to send out some thoughts to my horseshoe family.

Jim & I have been a part of this Washington horseshoe family for 31 years. It has been our great privilege to come to know some of the finest people in the world. So many of the greats from days gone by are no longer with us and we miss them

As our numbers are dwindling, my obscured thinking tells me that we already have the best of the best so it's hard to find many more. Maybe that's the reason for our shrinking membership!

This family has given us so much – from hard competition to laughter uncontrollable to sadness incomparable to friendships that no one can break. This family is so special. I would love to name names, but this paper would not have room for all your names and also those who are no longer with us.

I just want to encourage everyone to keep communication open with your fellow pitchers. Step outside your comfort zone and let us get to know You. I find we have such a diverse group of talented folks in our midst and I am always in awe of the stories of your lives. We appreciate each of you.

Cinderella is proof that a pair of “shoes” can change your life! Phyl Q or the doubles that were held a few weeks ago. First let me say congratulations to all the winners at the PNW. A class winner was Russ Phillips, B class was Vic Magnus, C class was Barry Gentle, and D class was Jim Yowell. Great job everyone. But as we talked about it at the dinner, we need more pitchers!!!!!! I have picked up one guy for next season and am looking forward to having another 40 footer to compete with the rest of us. I believe he can be around 50% by the Winetrouts. We will see how this all shakes out as we try and move forward with our next season.

I want to say thank you to the Tri Cities and Odessa clubs for all the work they put in to having the last 2 tournaments. Both clubs did a great job having everything ready to play games on and to help make it as accommodating as possible. Until we get more members to come out, it will always be hard to keep classes close. I believe Barry did the best he could to keep classes as competitive as possible.

2019 Tournament Schedule

Keep an eye out via E-mail or the State website for the 2019 Tournament Schedule. It will probably also be uploaded to the WSHPA Facebook page also. I have included the links below.

WA State Tournament Schedule: http://www.wshpa.com/events\_news.html

This page will show 2019 once the schedule is finalized and published.
